

Well Done

Click here for dissertation

[\[+\]](#)

WINNERS

» CRISIL Young Thought Leader 2012 - Winners

Winners for the CRISIL Young Thought Leader 2012 awards are listed below:

Topic	Winner	Runner-up
Does the 'Buy and hold' strategy really work amid the current high volatility in equity markets?	Varun Sanghi MDI, Gurgaon (Final Year)	Nishit Mehta JBIMS, Mumbai (Final Year)
Economic impact and investing opportunities of the two upcoming mega events in Brazil - 2014 FIFA World Cup and 2016 Olympic Games	Nitya Malladi NMIMS, Hyderabad (Final Year)	Nrsingha Ganguly IIM, Lucknow (Final Year)
Are emerging markets becoming more attractive to investors as a result of the European crisis?	Prateek Parimal IMNU, Ahmedabad (Final Year)	Navaneethakrishnan Sankaraiah IIM, Bangalore (Final Year)

Well Done

Name of the event :- Interface (by BITS Pilani)

Team Name: - Virtuous (Secured 1st position)

Team Members: - Chanchal Kaushik, Ankit Sharma & Al-Azhar Malik

Colleges that Participated: - The event consisted of 8 teams that had participated in the contest from NMIMS Hyderabad (2 teams), FMS Delhi, IIT Roorkee, Delhi school of Economics, Amity Mumbai, SIBM Pune, and International Management Institute (IMI) Delhi.

About the Event: - The event consisted of two rounds and every round was about strategically selecting (prioritizing) and selling the products only to the students of Bits. In the first round a range of products were given with limited availability of each product and students were suppose to choose the products based on their priority. Incase of selection of similar product by any two teams, the team with the highest priority was given the first preference and in case the preference was the same the students had to bid for the product. In both the rounds the products that we chose were in the descending order of the prices and the products could be sold the maximum mark up to only 25%.

Awards: - Cash Price – Rs15000

Hercules Cycle

Time Voucher worth Rs25,000 (100% reimbursement)

Name of the event:- 4P-Show Me The Money

Team Name: - CFA(Care For All)

Secured- 2nd position

Team Members:- Aman Preet Singh, Prateek Mittal and Ankit Jain

Prize: - Cash Prize – 3,000, Hercules Cycle, Time Voucher worth Rs25,000 (80% reimbursement)

Well Done

Mr Jaspreet Singh Dhingra, PGDM Batch 2011-13 won the third prize in "NIVESH" (a Portfolio Management Event), which was a part of SANSKRITI'13, the national level management fest conducted by Institute of Public Enterprise, Hyderabad on 22-23rd January 2013. The competition comprised three rounds.

Round 1: Online virtual equity trading

Round 2: It was a case study competition following which ten students got selected for final presentation

Round 3: Ten students who got selected were asked to prepare a presentation, emphasising on the strategies they apply in Trading and Portfolio Management. Among these ten students, Mr Jaspreet stood third and received a cash prize of INR 3000.

Well Done

The students of NMIMS, Hyderabad Campus have done us proud by participating and winning laurels at Trishna 2013, the Annual National level Inter B School Competition organized by IBS Hyderabad on 16,17 and 18th Jan, 2013. Our students competed with students of the best B schools in the country which included IIM Ahmedabad, IIM Bangalore, IIM Kozhikode, ISB, MICA, IFMR, SIBM.

MEGISTANOS - Best Manager

Winner : Mr.Ankit Jain PGDM 2012-14 from NMIMS Hyderabad - The Best Manager award.

The Prize - Cash Prize of Rs.30,000 Along with rewards in kind worth Rs.20,000.

Finalist : Ms.Prachi Mehta PGDM 2012-14 from NMIMS Hyderabad

About :

In the midst of a Global Meltdown, where every firm was muddling in a vicious swamp, the firm was in need of a MANAGER, who would turn the organization around to reach the pinnacle of new heights. Megistanos was a three day event to select the best among the best, a person who would out perform others with his/her perfect blend of knowledge, skills, persona and attitude. Megistanos as an event was designed to identify the hidden manager within each of the participants.

All-in-all Megistanos was an event which tested the creativity, insights, knowledge, managerial ability, ethics and above all the perseverance of an individual. It was a three day 24X7 event. It had 27 contenders competing to prove their mettle. Explained below are the highlights of various rounds across the three days and eight rounds. The first six rounds were elimination rounds.

Day 1:

Round 1-Operations:

Skills tested: Negotiation, Sturdiness of design, Logic and structure of the approach, and ability to implement.

Round 2-Finance:

Skills tested: Financial acumen, Investment analysis

DAY 2:

Round 3-Economics and Marketing:

Skills tested: Flexibility, Marketer's insight.

Round 4-Startegy design, HR:

Skills tested: Analytical ability, Negotiation, Handling of conflict, Decision making in the worst case scenario.

Round 5-Strategic Implementation and approach to markets.

Skills tested: Thinking on one's feet, Ability to Market the product.

Round 6- Business Networking and socialization.

Skills tested: Networking, Finesse, and Elevator pitching in social forums.

DAY 3:

Round 7: Assembly to Delivery (Treasure hunt).

Skills: tested Agility, Stamina, and ability to follow abstract cues.

Round 8: Final round

Skills tested: Stress handling and Creativity, Innovation, Boldness, adherence to ethics, ability to brush off undignified attacks with finesse.

INCENDO

Mr. Karan Goenka and Mr. Aniket Vaidya of PGDM 2012-14 from NMIMS Hyderabad won Incendo – a photography competition held by Nazaria during Trishna. A three-day event started off with elimination round through online mode where the theme was ‘Indian Women – My Perception’. After getting shortlisted in the online contest, the students were invited on the campus for further rounds which consisted of three stages in which they were asked to work on different themes like an ad campaign, pictogram- 5 photos in a series- which conveyed the message of “Possessiveness” and the last round was to play with the lights.

A total of 10 photographs were submitted by each team in the 4 rounds and were marked cumulatively on each theme. The event tested the conceptual as well as technical knowledge of students about the photography, framing, image composition and the most important creativity. Each round consisted of presentation of final photographs. Also the justifications were taken by the judge Mr. Amit Kumar, an alumnus of IBS and a co-founder of Nazaria, Photography club of IBS-Hyderabad.

The Prize - Cash Prize of Rs.4000 /-

CROSSROADS

This was an event that was based on Enterpreneuership. 50 teams were selected out of which 5 teams reached the finalist stage. The following students were one of the finalist team

The Finnators:

1. Mr. Kshitij Gondhalaker
2. Krunal Mehta

FINSTREET

This was an event that was based on Finance. 29 teams were selected .The following students were the finalist team:

1. Mr. Krunal Mehta

2. Mr.Nikunj Gor

Report by : Team Nexus.

Faculty Incharge : Ms.Kavita Sasidharan Kulkarni

advait 2012

Vivarann

Indian Institute of Foreign trade

1st and 2nd December

Team VIJRUMBH
from NMIMS placed First Rupees _____
25000/-

"Well Done - Winners" - Team Vijrumbh consisting of Mr Vinay Kumar Vadla and Ms Nitya Malladi – PGDM Batch 2011-13 from Narsee Monjee Institute of Management Studies – Hyderabad has won the First prize in VivaRann – the stock pitch competition, which was a part of Advait, the annual management fest of Indian Institute of Foreign Trade (IIFT) Kolkata on 02 Dec 2012.

The competition comprised three rounds. The first round was an online quiz which tested the Finance acumen of the teams. 27 teams were shortlisted after the first round. These teams were asked to make a pitch report on one of the stocks from a selected list of 8 stocks for the second round. Following which, five teams were shortlisted for the Final round. NMIMS Hyderabad's team was one of these final five teams.

The Final round was conducted on 2nd December 2012 and it consisted of two rounds. The first round was a simulation round and second round was a presentation of the pitch report. Team Vijrumbh has topped both the rounds and emerged as the champion. The team has received cash prize of INR 25,000. The final has witnessed participation from one team from MDI and two teams from IIFT.

Congratulations.....

Ms Nitya Malladi

Mr Vinay Kumar Vadla

Mr Pranay Veer of PGDM Batch 2011-12 won the National Level Summer Internship Project Presentation Contest conducted by Faculty of Management Studies Institute of Rural Management, Jaipur on 12-13 Oct 2012. He has been adjudged first in Finance Stream amongst the participants of the contest.

Congratulations....

Mr Pranay Veer

